PROPOSALS

For Publishing, by Subscription,

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF

SIR WALTER SCOTT:

With a Biography: being the first American (and only) edition which contains the Author's last additions and illustrations, arranged upon their respective pages.

A COMPLETE and uniform edition of the various productions of the great 'Minstrel of the North,' is a desideratum with the American public. No library is complete without them, and no edition extant is sufficiently compact for such a repository; while the endless number of editions, without any uniformity in size, heretofore published, besides being exceedingly cumbrous, are far too voluminous and expensive to be within the reach of the great majority of readers. The undersigned therefore announce, that they have now in press, and will issue, an edition of the Works of Sir Walter Scott, which will embrace all his Poems, Novels, Histories, Biographies, and Fugitive Compositions, as well as the Biography and Private Correspondence, now in the course of publication in England, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart.

1st. In Parts: each Part embracing as much matter as is contained in two volumes of the present editions of the Waverley Novels, which will be put at the unprecedented low price of THIRTY SEVEN AND A HALF CENTS.

2d. Two parts will appear each month; but should the publishers find the work to meet the patronage they anticipate, FOUR PARTS will be issued monthly.

3d. The whole will be completed in seven volumes, or forty eight parts.

The paper on which the above is now printing, has been made expressly for the purpose; the present parts may, therefore, be considered a fair specimen, in every respect, of the whole work; but, should dissatisfaction arise with any subscriber, owing to an inferior article being offered, he may discontinue at any time, and have the amount paid returned.

Note.—The publication of the first volume is deferred until the receipt of the Biography, Private Correspondence, and the New Edition of the Author's Poetical Works, with 'contemporary criticism—various readings—and correspondence with some of the most eminent persons of the time when the Poems first appeared,' now in the course of publication in England.

Volume I will be ornamented with an excellent Portrait of Sir Walter Scott.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 28, 1833.

CORRECTION.—In an editorial article, in our paper of Saturday, in stating the estimate of damage on Lake Erie, as made in the Conneaut Gazette, we made it $10,000—it should have been $100,000.

WARREN CONVENTION.—We notice, in the United States' Gazette, of Friday last, that a meeting of the citizens of the city and county of Philadelphia, favorable to the improvement of the west, and of appointing Delegates to represent that county in the Convention at Warren, on the 13th of November next, was to be held at the District Court Room, on Saturday evening.

☞By an advertisement, in another column, it will be seen that Mr. Sutton, a Ventriloquist, will perform several evenings this week, at Concert Hall.

CONNECTION WITH THE OHIO CANAL.—Some of our readers may think that this subject occupies too much space in our columns. To such an opinion we will only reply, that this improvement is one of the highest importance to the State; and, that now seems to be the very time to press it upon the attention of all those interested in its completion. Our present intention, however, is to notice an article in the last New Lisbon Palladium, signed "Ohio," advocating the Massillon Rail Road. This article might have passed unnoticed, had it been confined to an investigation of the relative merits of the two routs, even though that investigation had been conducted with a spirit of partiality. The writer has thought proper, however, to make the following invidious reference to our motives, in relation to this matter—

"We have observed that a certain editor, in Pittsburgh, has lent his strong aid in support of this circuitous rout—we were ready to query, has he some acres of land near said rout which are not as valuable as they might be, if this rout was adopted?"

This, we presume, refers to us, because we have heard similar insinuations before.—Suppose it is true that we own "some acres of land near said rout," we are "ready to query" whether that would invalidate any arguments which we might use, upon this question. We are also "ready to query" whether it becomes an individual, who resides in New Lisbon—whose business is there—whose entire property, perhaps, is there—and who advocates an improvement which would pass just by his door, to make an insinuation against our motives, because we happened to own "some acres of land" near the other rout.

If our owning "some acres of land" near the other rout, would neutralize our arguments in favor of that rout, what becomes of the arguments of an individual whose home, whose business, and whose all, is on or near the other rout?—This would be a sufficient reply to the unworthy insinuation of the writer in the Palladium.—But we will give a reply that will be still more conclusive—we say, unequivocally, that we own no "acres of land, near the northern rout."

LATER FROM ENGLAND.

New York, October 23.—The London packet ship Philadelphia, Capt. Morgan, arrived yesterday. She sailed from Portsmouth on the 21st September. We have received by her London dates of the 19th of that month.

Donna Maria, accompanied by the Duchess of Braganza, has left England for Lisbon, the conduct of the British government towards her having to the last moment been distinguished by the greatest courtesy and attention. Previous to her departure, the accounts which we published yesterday of the attack on Lisbon, by Bourmont, on the 5th September, had reached London from Paris, and seem not to have had the effect of delaying her voyage one instant.

PORTSMOUTH, Sept. 14.—Yesterday morning, at ten o'clock, the Queen of Portugal and the Duchess of Braganza left Windsor Castle, according to appointment, for this place. Previous to their departure, they received several valuable and interesting presents from the King and Queen of England, who, on bidding farewell to their illustrious guests, expressed, in the kindest and most affectionate terms, their cordial good wishes for their future prosperity and happiness. Apart from the usual offices of hospitality, there was a marked degree of attention paid by his Majesty to the young Queen of Portugal, evincing the deep interest which our sovereign takes in the establishment of the rights of that much injured Princess.

LATER FROM FRANCE.

By the ship Empress, Capt. Hartshorn, from Bordeaux, we received last night Bordeaux papers to the 20th September, being two days later then those from which we yesterday gave extracts. They contain some further accounts of the attack of Bourmont on Lisbon, on the 5th September; and, from the particulars mentioned, it appears to us that the Miguelites have locked up Don Pedro in Lisbon as closely as they did in Oporto.—Lisbon is, however, not a fortified town, and should Bourmont have, as has been stated, under his command, 20,000 regular troops, and Don Pedro but 8,000, the position of the latter will become very critical, unless England hastens to his assistance.

There is a daily increasing probability that the expected death of the King of Spain will involve the whole of the peninsula in a civil war.—Courier & Enquirer.

Extracts from the Madrid Gazette, of Sept. 12.

YELVES, (Portugal,) Sept. 9.—Although the telegraphic despatches do not entirely confirm the news received from the army by the way of Santarem, it is asserted that the troops of Don Miguel have occupied Belem, a suburb of Lisbon, without the troops of the enemy who occupy Monsanto, having made any opposition to it. The royal palace of Ajuda has, in consequence, fallen into the power of Don Miguel, and H. M. lodges there. The 7th, Te Deum was sung in the Patriarchal Church.

The 5th, at 4 o'clock in the morning, our troops were under arms, for the purpose of reconnoitring, and the enemy's guerillas retired to their entrenchments on their approach. At 5 o'clock, the fire began from Saint Sebastian de la Pedreira to Arcas de las Aguas libres, that is to say, along the whole line. The Miguelites advanced as far as the Arcas, and caused a heavy loss to two of the enemy's battalions of chasseurs.

One of the four Royalist batteries situated at Palmas y Siete Rios, did great injury to the redoubt of Campolido, and dismounted an howitzer and a cannon of 12.

The fire lasted the whole day, and the troops afterwards resumed their respective positions. 6,000 men only were engaged in the action.

The 6th no battle took place, and the day was employed in erecting new batteries.

It is calculated that on the 5th, our loss amounted to from 200 to 300 men, killed and wounded, among which are some officers of merit, but none of high rank.

The prisoners made by us have been treated with the greatest humanity. This is not the case with those who have had the misfortune to fall into the hands of the troops of Don Pedro.

Extracts from the Constitutional Chronicle of Lisbon up to the 7th Sept.

The arrest of the Marquis and Marchioness de Bellune, having been admitted to be illegal, they have by a decree been set at liberty.

The Chronicle of the 7th, in the non official part, gives an account of the affair of the 5th. It says, "at half past five in the morning, the troops of Don Miguel to the number of 11 or 12,000 men, advanced in six columns towards the centre of the line of fortifications. Two of these columns marched on l'Arco de Cego —The fire of Don Pedro's batteries deranged this disposition, and obliged these two columns to make a movement towards the right. The six columns then attacked the positions of Saint Sebastian de Pedreira, and of Campolide, but they were repulsed in two attempts.

"No other action has taken place, but the Miguelites occupied a wall in front of the Quintina de la Seabra, from which they kept up a brisk fire until the 7th, in the evening, when they retreated to the distance of half a league." The Chronicle says that the Miguelites have left 400 dead on the field of battle; amongst whom is a French General, commanding the cavalry; and some deserters have assured us that their loss is 1,400 men.

MADRID, 12th Sept.—Since yesterday an account has been put in circulation of the entrance of the troops of Don Miguel in Lisbon, as stated in a note addressed by the minister, M. Zea, to the ambassador of France and others, his colleagues.

At last, yesterday we learned from the English embassy, that the Pedroites had gained a victory on the 5th, after having allowed the troops of Bourmont to approach the fortifications, near the suburbs of Lisbon, from which they were vigorously repulsed.

From the want of direct information, as the Government attaches the greatest interest to preventing private letters from reaching us, we are compelled to content ourselves with the avowal of the Gazette which gives the news in its own way; however, it is generally admitted that the Miguelites have lost in the attack of the 5th about 2,500 men, prisoners or deserters to Don Pedro. The inhabitants of Lisbon have displayed the greatest enthusiasm, and General Villa Flor has displayed the greatest courage and military talents. The 6th he re-entered the city with the trophies of the previous day.

The London Herald gives a letter from Brussels, dated 17th September, and remarks that Europe is at present full of combustible materials.

This letter states that a note was addressed by the King of Holland to the Monarchs, detailing the origin and progress of the Belgian rebellion, and laying great stress upon the treaties of Vienna. After protesting against the London Conference acting as arbitrators instead of mediators, he demands the treaty of Vienna to be put in force, to enable him to recover his lost kingdom. It is said Austria, and Prussia, and Russia have promised him their assistance. These different powers have agreed to support the King of Holland, and to consider any interventionary power, as a declaration of war on all parties whose signatures are attached to a treaty offensive and defensive, to be formed on this basis.

The Emperor of Russia has sent despatches to prince Lieven, in conformity with this arrangement. A Belgian minister declared "a general war was inevitable." Accounts from Holland corroborate this statement. "Never," says a letter from the Hague, "were we so certain of the assistance of the cabinets of St. Petersburg, and Vienna, as at this moment." Austria has sent a large body of cavalry into the Tyrol, near the frontiers of Switzerland. This cannot fail to attract attention; and it is the opinion of the best informed that the close of 1833, will bring to view the plans of the northern powers.

Constantinople, Aug. 20.

The Egyptian fleet with 8,000 men on board, from Ibrahim's army, have returned from Tarsous. He continues in Syria, where he is draining those who have money.

Mahomet Ali has sailed from Candia with 4 ships of the line, 4 frigates, and a number of smaller vessels. Accounts on the 27th, state that Ibraham has returned to Alexandria.

Accounts from Cyprus state that the people of that place have revolted in consequence of the tyranny of the governor. Disturbances have again broken out in Albania—the whole population are in arms, in consequence of the oppression of the Pacha.

Letters from Greece represent things in a very unsettled state. Continual quarrels are taking place among the inhabitants.

From the National Intelligencer.

We inserted lately the preceedings of a convention at Greensburgh, Pennsylvania, assembled for the purpose of promoting the improvement of the Monongahela river; and we perceive that increasing attention is drawn to the subject of internal improvement in western Pennsylvania, and especially towards the extension of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. The Hon. Andrew Stewart, and other prominent citizens, are active in directing the public interest to this important object, and we are glad to learn that petitions are in circulation, for obtaining from Congress an additional appropriation for the great work above referred to.—Many circumstances combine to render such an application expedient, and the time auspicious for moving it. In the first place, the controversy with the Rail Road Company has been adjusted, and no opposition is to be apprehended from that quarter. Secondly, the progress that has been already made in the work, and the three millions expended on it—an amount large in itself, although moderate for what it has effected. Thirdly, the abundant resources of the Government, possessing, as it will, probably, eight or ten millions of surplus revenue, a great portion of which must be applied to the improvement of the country.

Now is the time, therefore, for the friends of this great national work to give it an impulse which will ensure its completion, from the tides of the Atlantic to the tributaries of the vast Mississippi. The augmented strength too, of the Western States, in the Congress of the Union, under the new census, is an additional source of encouragement, and strengthens our hopes. The united efforts of its friends, we believe, are alone necessary to its success.

In reference to the improvement of the Monongahela, for which Dr. Howard, the engineer has been employed in making a survey, this object was very properly connected, by the Greensburgh Convention, with this subject of the Canal. The propriety of the connection will be obvious, when we advert to the fact, that when the canal reaches Cumberland, which will probably be simultaneous with the completion of the permanent repair of the Cumberland Road, the steamboat navigation of the Monongahela to Brownsville, will reduce the land transportation from this city (Washington,) to New Orleans, to seventy two miles, upon a first rate Macadamized road, which can be easily traveled in common stages in less than ten hours; and this great plan of reducing the land carriage from the seat of Government to New Orleans, to the short distance of seventy two miles, may, with proper exertion, be accomplished in two years, or three at farthest. So we are informed by one of the most intelligent and practical men of the West. This will be a great object gained, while the greater but necessarily slower, object of effecting a water communication through the whole distance, by means of the Canal, is in course of execution. It is certainly worthy of enlisting the hearty co-operation of every patriot, who has at heart the prosperity, union, and glory of the country.

THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

We feel warranted in saying that, from the commencement of Gen. Washington's administration, down to the commencement of Gen. Jackson's, no Chief Magistrate has ever submitted a grave question to the decision of his cabinet, and having obtained that decision, unceremoniously rejected it, with the declaration "I take the responsibility."—The uniform practice of Gen. Washington was, to be governed by the opinion of the majority. We will present two instances.

When the question was agitated in Cabinet Council, April, 1793, whether the proclamation of the 22d should be issued, Mr. Randolph, Attorney General, and Mr. Knox, Secretary at War, tho't a letter should be written by the Secretary of State, to the foreign ministers. Mr. Hamilton opposed it strongly. The President was with him in opinion; but Mr. Jefferson agreed with Randolph and Knox—Whereupon General Washington remarked—"that, as there were three for it, it should go."

Again—On the 2d of August, 1793, a Cabinet Council was held to decide whether Congress should be convened. Gen. Knox was against it. Gen. Hamilton said, he was "opposed," but "if two were for it or against it, he would join them, to make a majority." Thus indicating that a majority would be conclusive as to the pending question. Such, then, was the practice during the presidency of General Washington; and we are authorized to say, that the same practice prevailed while Mr. Jefferson was President. Whenever he submitted a question to his cabinet, he was governed by their decision. It is true, he sometimes decided important points without submitting them to his Cabinet, as in the case of Monroe's treaty with Great Britain, which he rejected, without presenting it either to the Cabinet or the Senate.

In relation to the removal of the public deposits General Jackson convened his cabinet. The Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Duane, contended that the was responsible to Congress, and that if he made the change, he could not justify himself before that body. The Secretary of State, Mr. McLane said, that, in his opinion, the act would be wrong; but that it was a question for the Secretary of the Treasury to decide, as he alone must meet the consequences when Congress convene. The Secretary of War, Mr. Cass, declared his opposition to the removal of the deposits, but at the same time declined interference, on the ground that a decision of the question appertained, exclusively, to the head of the Treasury department. The Attorney General, Mr. Taney, was in favor of the change, and he was forthwith transferred to the station of the "refractory Secretary;" the President proclaiming, in contempt of the law, to the cabinet and to the world—"I take the responsibility." For this hasty and inconsiderate assumption of power, the managers at Washington, and the stock gamblers elsewhere, would canonize him.—N. Y. Courier.

"All doubt as to the willingness of the State Banks to undertake the service of the Government, to the same extent, and on the same terms, as it is now performed by the Bank of the United States, is put to rest by the report of the agent recently employed to collect information." "It is not to be supposed that they would be willing to place themselves in a situation which they cannot occupy without danger of annihilation or embarrassment."—President's Reasons.

In casually looking over the late Presidential Rescript, we were struck with the above sentences, and the hasty opinions they express. The report of the agent could not possibly have put to rest a question which he not only had not tested, but did not even know how to go about examining. What Bank in New York has agreed to transfer to St. Louis, annually, a million of dollars of the money collected in that city? What bank in Philadelphia has agreed to guarantee the safety and facility of transfer, by any New York local bank, of the ten or twelve millions of dollars annually collected in that city? What bank in the city of New York has ageed to disburse, from funds so collected there, amongst the Lord knows how many thousand pensioners, all over every State and Territory in the Union, the amount necessary to pay all? The fact is, the agent could not have ascertained all that he is said to have done, because when questioned by the bank officers as to the particulars of service they were expected to perform, &c., he absolutely could not tell. He got nothing but general offers, civil professions, and vague promises. The trouble of the arrangements is all to come. We wish Mr. TANEY joy of it. We know he has the aid of his shrewd coadjutor OLIVIER, but he will nevertheless have his hands full, and he must not be surprised if he find his strong box empty before he is aware of it.—National Intelligencer.

Advantages of being Jackson men.—Calhoun, Hayne, M'Duffie, Ingham, Mangum, Tyler, and Tazewell, were powerful supporters of General Jackson. They have had their day, like all other unlucky dogs, and now their collars are off, are proclaimed mad, and doomed to destruction.—Duane is another specimen of party popularity.—Like Wolsey they may yet know that they would have done better in serving their God and Country, than an ungrateful headstrong master.—Albany Daily Advertiser

Severe Gale.—On Thursday last commenced one of the severest gales ever witnessed on Lake Erie. It continued about 24 hours, and the damage has been heavy. We have copied from the Buffalo Patriot, Extra, of the 19th instant, an account of the losses as far as was then ascertained. The schooner Farmer, owned at this port, is ashore at Dunkirk, report not much injured—her cargo, consisting of merchandise, belonging principally to Messrs. Dick, Magaw & Shryock, of Meadville, is said to be wet, and of course injured—damage not ascertained. The weather on the Lake has been unusually boisterous this fall, and the losses much heavier than were ever known.—Erie Gazette, Oct. 24.

We have been told that the Steam Boat Gazelle, which left here on Tuesday last for Cincinnati, had two hundred cabin passengers. The Gazelle is not a large boat.—Wheeling Gazette, Oct. 26.

Steamboat Ohio.—We regret to learn, as we have, from Captain Pease, of the Superior, that the Ohio, Captain Titus, has met with some great misfortune. In a heavy sea, in a gale of wind, near Cleveland, her engine failed, and by the aid of her sails she attempted to return to the mouth of Grand River, and on reaching the harbor, missed the entrance between the piers, and struck the one to the leeward, carrying away her bowsprit, head, and part of her guards, both sides forward. Capt. P. assisted in towing her into harbor, and thinks the injury not very extensive.

Wreck.—The schooner Utica, from the upper lakes, was capsized in a gale on Sunday, off Conneaut, and all to the number of five, supposed to be lost.—Buffalo Jour. Oct. 16.

The New York Commercial Advertiser states that the American Institute, at their recent Fair in that city, paid to Mr. Kennedy, of Baltimore, who delivered the Annual Address before the Institute, the compliment of a suit of clothes from the first premium broad cloth.—Balt. Amer.

The Richmond Compiler, of Tuesday last, says, "There can be little doubt, from what we learn, that Counsellor Peter V. Daniel, of this city, has been offered the place of Attorney General of the United States; and still less, we imagine, that he will accept of the tender."—Poulson,

New York Canals.—From the Albany Argus we learn, that the amount of Tolls received during the month of September, was $203,685 82.—During the present season, the receipts up to Sept. 30th, inclusive, have been $998,176 10—exceeding those of last year, for the same period, $210,000.—Com. Herald.

Remarkable Passage.—The packet ship Virginia, Capt. Harris, from this port, arrived at Liverpool on the 11th of September, in seventeen days. She made the run from land to land in fourteen days. So pleasant was the weather that her royals were not taken in during the passage.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

Well done, ladies!—The Boston Atlas says—"Fashion is a whimsical jade, but who ever dreamed that she would put canes into the ladies' hands. But so it is, "pon honor." Two of our fashionable ladies exhibited themselves yesterday in Washington street, with their little sticks, which they flourished with becoming grace.—Gentlemen must look out in future and always give ladies the inside of the walk, or they may smart for it."

Colonization Prosperity.—"An effort is now making in New York, with encouraging prospects, to raise $200,000 for the Colonization Society. Liberal arrangements have been made in Maryland to aid the cause by settling a Colony, at the expense of the State, at Cape Palmas. In Albany, also, it is proposed to found a settlement that shall bear the name of that capital. There are other gratifying indications that this noble enterprise, having the three fold object, to prepare the way for the extinction of slavery, to found a free empire, and enlighten a continent of pagans, is growing in public favor. It may be well to mention that the collection at the late meeting in this town has, by the liberality of an individual, been swelled to upwards of $3,000."—Newark Daily Advertiser.

Tremendous Explosion.—Late New Orleans papers contain some additional items of Mexican news. A tremendous explosion of a powder magazine took place at Puebla, on the 22d of August, near 2 o'clock, P. M. The magnificent edifice of the Company (what Company we know not) had been used as an arsenal for artillery, shops of fabrication, and other purposes.

The sad catastrophe is attributed to five royalists, who had been banished to Acapulco, on account of another villainy attempted on the night of July 18.

In 24 hours after, about 107 dead bodies of the youth attached to the works, had been found among the ruins, and much more than that number were probably among the rubbish not yet dug up or removed.

The five conspirators were taken, and are to be examined before a council on the 27th. They are accused as accomplices in many other heinous and facinorous deeds, with the assassin Andrade.—Their names are Clemente de la Torre, Mariano Villegas, Isidro Espinosa, Ignacia Balvabosa, Eugenie Hermoso.

Female Emigrants.—Tuesday morning, a number of persons assembled at St. Katherine's wharf to witness the embarkation of about two hundred and fifty females on board the ship Layton, Captain Wade, bound for Sydney, chartered by the Emigration Committee to convey female emigrants to that settlement. Amongst the number we noticed several fine young women from different work houses in the metropolis, and every one appeared pleased with the opportunity of endeavoring to better her condition. The accommodations on board the Layton for emigrants are very comfortable, and every thing is done to provide for their safety during the long voyage.—English paper.

A new power.—There is a prospect that, in a few years, perhaps months, the whole system of steam enginery will undergo a revolution. Mr. Erickson is about to take out a patent for the employment of a new power—that of heated air; in which he offers a saving of fuel of eight tenths.—He has amply proved the practicability of his projection: for an engine of one horse power, upon the new principle, has been working upon his premises with complete success for the last three months. It has been inspected by the most eminent practical engineers in the country.—London Paper.

We learn that Mrs. Parmentier has recently disposed of, at private sale, the ground now occupied by her as a Garden, for the sum of fifty three thousand dollars. The enclosed premises cover about ten acres, and are distant about a mile and three quarters from Brooklyn Ferry. When her late husband purchased this property, about eleven years since, (for which he paid six thousand dollars,) it was almost a barren rock, and all his friends, at that time, thought he had entered upon a Quixotic speculation.

The adjourned meeting of the citizens of Buffalo, to take into consideration the removal of the Deposits from the Bank of the United States, was held on Thursday, 17th. A series of spirited resolutions were adopted.

Effects of Reform.—Every now and then we hear of fresh depredations committed by the "reform" Postmasters. The following is from the Broome Republican:

"On Saturday last, the deputy postmaster in this village, a young man of very respectable family, was arrested and committed to prison, charged with having purloined 300 dollars from a letter. The particulars are these: Lemuel S. Ellsworth, Esq. the postmaster at Tioga Point, sent a check on a distant institution to be cashed at the Broome County Bank in this village. On Monday of last week the Cashier of the Bank enclosed the money in a letter and deposited it in the post office, directed to Tioga Point. The letter not reaching its destination, Mr. Ellsworth commenced an examination of the different post offices between the two villages, which resulted in fixing his suspicions on the above mentioned individual. He was charged with the crime, and, after some hesitation, confessed his guilt, and delivered up the money. This is the sixth time the U. S. Mail has been robbed within a few weeks by postmasters and their deputies, in different sections of the country, while the nominal Head of the General Post Office Department is said to be out on an electioneering tour at the west, totally unmindful of his official duties."

NEW YORK MARKETS, October 19th.

ASHES advanced in consequence of favorable news from Havre. On Saturday there were sales of pots at $4 70 per 100 lbs., and 100 bbls. pearls at $5 12 1-2. Most holders ask still higher prices.

COTTON—The market was quiet throughout, and prices declined about 1-4 ct.

COFFEE—The business was very small, and the market heavy. 400 bags Cuba were sold at 12 1-2 a 13c. per lb., in lots; 200 Laguayra at 13 1-2c., and a few other smaller lots, all to the trade.

SUGAR—Prices droop. The sales of Cuba browns amounted to 400 boxes, perhaps at 8 1-8 a 1-4, the latter for good quality. By auction 50 boxes white Havana, inferior, at 9 5-8 a 3-4; 130 hhds. Orleans at 8 1-4 a 9 cts. lb.; 46 hhds. Porto Rico at 8 3-4 a 9 5-8 cts lb.

WOOL—The market continues firm, and the article in good demand.

CORN EXCHANGE—There was an active business in Western Flour. Prices went up to $5 75, for common brands, but the receipts were large, and the price fell back to $5 69, at which several sales of good brands were made on Saturday. The quantity on the way is known to be large. Troy $6 62 1-2, none; the last sales of Ohio $5 62 1-2, for round, and 75 for flat hoops, and a good article. Southern Flour was firm in price with but few sales. Some old Richmond was sold at $6, and new at $6 25. Georgetown and Howard st. $6 37 1-2 a 50; Rye Flour 62 1-2c. from boats, and 75c. from store. Several cargoes of Genessee Wheat sold at 118 a 119 1-2c. Southern is much wanted; a cargo of 2,500 bus., the only one we heard of, sold on Saturday at 125c.; Rye 80c.—Northern Corn 76 a 79c. and Southern, of which there were large sales, at 70 a 74c. Barley is worth about 72c. Flour closed heavy.

MONEY AND EXCHANGES—Since the bonds have been paid into the local Banks, the money has been at once sent back to circulation; and, although pretty large amounts have been drawn to the East and to Canada, there has been a growing relief, until at the close of the week there could hardly be said to be any pressure. European exchanges fell; for the packets of the 16th private bills on London sold at $4 76 the pound stg., and on France at 18 7-8cts. the franc.

BUSINESS GENERALLY was dull, though all things appear healthy. There has not been a mercantile failure of any importance in this city for a long time.—Jour. of Com.

Such Estimates, expressing the terms of payment, and time required for the completion of the work, handed to the subscribers, on or before the 30th inst., shall be submitted at once, and it is presumed that the most favorable offer will result in a contract.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

THE Subscribers, Trustees of the New Philadelphia Society, at Phillipsburgh, Beaver county, Pennsylvania, offer for sale the following property, to wit:

1	tract of land	containing	330 acres
1	do	do	330
1	do	do	67
1	do	do	7
1	do	do	40
	other lots, containing about		6

The above lands lie in one body, fronting about two miles upon the Ohio river—immediately opposite the mouth of Big Beaver creek, and the Beaver Division of the Pennsylvania Canal. The land is rich, and a part of it under a high state of cultivation—its location pleasant and healthy. The improvements upon the same are valuable, including the town of Phillipsburgh, late the residence of Count Leon, and the New Philadelphia Society. The town contains about 40 Dwelling Houses, now in order; some of them brick houses and two stories high. A large and spacious Hotel, a Store house, Church, a number of Shops, for mechanics, Stables, Barns, and other out houses. Also, two large new buildings, lately erected, but not yet finished, one of brick, the other of frame (the latter suitable for a manufactory) a very extensive public garden, and also fruit trees of various kinds. The property has also attached to it the right of a ferry across the Ohio, which is valuable, and becoming more so every day.

The above property is situated in the midst of a wealthy and prosperous country, distant about 28 miles below Pittsburgh, and one mile from Beaver, the seat of justice for Beaver county—and having a view for many miles up and down the Ohio, and of the country to a great distance around.

The subscribers are confident in saying that few situations could be found, presenting greater facilities to the farmer, mechanic, the manufacturer, and others—a soil rich and productive—the neighborhood abounding in coal—well timbered and watered, and, by means of the Pennsylvania Canal, and steamboat navigation, a cheap and ready conveyance to market, and a communication with other places is ensured.

The property is susceptible of divisions into farms, or for the location of new towns, or for the extension of the present one.

Should it not be sold on or before the first day of January next, it will then be offered at public sale, upon the premises, to the highest and best bidder.

It will be sold in a body, or in parcels, to suit purchasers.

Terms of sale will be reasonable.

Information can be had by enquiring of the subscribers, two of whom live in the neighborhood, and one on the premises.

This work is designed for the agriculturist, and will be found to contain much, both interesting and profitable, to those who cultivate the soil as a business, or merely a garden for amusement. Mechanics' Magazine, and Register of Improvements and Inventions. To the Mechanics of the United States—In this populous and enlightened country, almost every description of persons can obtain knowledge and amusement connected with their peculiar pursuits, through the medium of the Journal or Magazine, especially devoted to their interests. The Theologian, the Farmer, the Philosopher, the Sportsman, and even the Plough Boy, has each his Journal, where he can find a record of the passing events of the day, connected with his peculiar avocations and recreations. Hitherto, the Mechanics (who form a large and most important portion of the community) have had no Journal, to which they could turn, with the certainty of finding that information they desire, no periodical of which they could say: 'This is ours, and for us.' In the hope that the attempt to supply such a want at a price so reasonable as to be within the reach of all, will meet with your active support, the subscriber proposes to publish, on the first day of each month, a Mechanics' Magazine. It will contain a well digested selection of the most useful and interesting articles in the London Mechanics' Magazine, London Register of Arts and Sciences, Repertory of Inventions, Library of Useful Knowledge, Journal of the Franklin Institute, and other works, connected with the arts and manufactures, published in this country and in Europe, accompanied with numerous and well executed Engravings. Its pages will be open for the communications of all, and especially for those of the practical artisan, to whose interest it will be particularly devoted. The Mechanics' Magazine will contain, also, a due portion of the occurrences of the month, Scientific and Literary Reviews of Books, Anecdotes, Economical Receipts, Reports of the state of Mechanics' Institutions, and other Scientific Societies in this state and other countries. To be published monthly. Each succeeding number will contain 64 pages, handsomely printed, and stitched in a neat cover. Six numbers will form a volume, for which an index and title page will be supplied, and also a Portrait of some distinguished Mechanic, as a Frontispiece. Terms, $3 per annum, in advance.

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,
From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞ A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes giving temporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.
